A special multidisciplinary seminar series organized by ECU’s graduate student body focused on bringing social justice issues to light and educating the Pirate Community at large on how race, religion, gender identity, sexual orientation, and more affect the lives of our Pirate Nation and our nation as a whole.

Racial Disparities in Maternal Infant Health
Tuesday, September 8
Amber Priester, Jacqueline Poston, Ke’Asia Craig
Brody School of Medicine

Busting the Model Minority Myth: Being a Japanese American in Healthcare and Education
Tuesday, September 15
Julianne Yuziuk
School of Dental Medicine

Resiliency in Princeville NC: The Importance of Understanding Why
Tuesday, September 22
Kayla Evans
Anthropology

The Business Case for Diversity & Inclusion
Tuesday, September 29
Alice Schenall
Public Health

Access, Screening, Treatment: Multilevel Inequities Leading to Disparate Outcomes
Tuesday, October 6
Scarlett Hao
Brody School of Medicine

Creating Safe Spaces for Transgender/Gender Nonbinary Folks
Tuesday, October 13
Dana M. Cea
Addictions and Rehabilitation Studies

Focusing on LGBTQ Related Issues in Healthcare Curriculums
Tuesday, October 20
Corey Winkler
School of Dental Medicine

Counseling the Mosaic
Tuesday, October 27
Chanale Propst
Department of Interdisciplinary Professions - Counselor Ed

The Many Faces of Feminism
Tuesday, November 10
Victoria Matlock, Ashanta Smith
Social Work

Supporting Undocumented Student’s Education in the United States
Tuesday, November 17
Rodney McNeill, Patrick Greene
Education

RSVP and view more details at:
https://engage.ecu.edu/organization/gpss